

Attend the SEL Technical Seminar at WPRC

SEL is extending a special invitation to college students to attend our technical seminar at the Western Protective Relay Conference (WPRC) in Spokane.

SEL Technical Seminar

7:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. | Monday, October 27, 2025
Spokane Convention Center | Centennial Ballroom ABCD

At this seminar, held the day before the conference begins, you'll join electric power industry professionals to hear directly from SEL engineers and innovators about the latest tools and technologies for electric power protection, automation, cybersecurity, and more.

See how experts throughout the industry are solving power system challenges—and take the opportunity to network with SEL executives and other industry professionals.

Round-trip transportation will be provided from the SEL Pullman campus to the Spokane Convention Center. Meals will be provided. The seminar is offered free of charge.

Register to attend
the SEL Technical Seminar.
