Beth

This response is better. In my opinion I would leave out "when executed" concerning the Walmart policy of eliminating the possibility of the new rx reaching the patient. Of course you may send in what you wish.

Secondly I would leave out the last part of the sentence that say I may have to pay to travel etc.

I would make a phone call to the compliance director and discuss with your illness could you handle by phone

Please send us a copy of your final submission.

Thanks,

Debbie Mack, R.Ph
