January 9, 2023

Important Information and To-Do List

- Subscribe to the required online textbook (zyBook) asap
- A zyBook assignment is due every lecture day by 11:59 pm, but it's best if you do the homework before the lecture (10%)
- First three zyBook assignments available via Canvas due Wed, 1.18.23; first one very long, but not hard
- Subscribe to the iClicker Student app asap (or register your iClicker remote); you'll need them next Wed, 1.18.23 (10%)
- Read the syllabus available on Canvas and class website (hw0; contract due by noon, 1.18.23)

- NO LABS THIS WEEK; labs start next week on 1.18.23 (10%)
- If you earn a B+ or better grade in CptS 111, you can take CptS 121 next semester even if you're not calculus-ready.
- Bring laptop to every lecture and lab; see syllabus about installing Python (3.9.x or higher)
- Check out the class website asap (link available via Canvas)
